HAVE FAITH IN GOD: FINDING STRENGTH IN THE STORM

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST,

Life can be overwhelming, like a turbulent sea threatening to engulf us. Fear and doubt may creep in, as they did for the apostles in the boat. Yet, in those moments, we have a choice: To let fear prevail or to have faith in God.

Faith is not a natural human response, but a supernatural gift that enables us to trust in the Lord's care and presence. It is the anchor that holds us steady in the face of turmoil, allowing us to believe in God's goodness, truth, and beauty. The Lord praises those who have faith, rewarding their trust with blessings and answers to their prayers.

As we navigate the challenges of life, we are not alone. God is in our boat, calming the storms and rescuing us from the depths. We are called to believe in Him, to walk with confidence in His presence, and to trust in His divine providence.

Here at the Mission, we are embarking on a renewed journey of faith, creating a center of healing and pilgrimage. We believe that the Lord will bless our efforts and those who come seeking Him. We thank you for your support, talents, and resources, and we entrust our Museum renewal plans to St. Joseph and the Blessed Mother.

Together, let us live the Mission with Christ, facing difficulties with courage and faith. For with God by our side, we can weather any storm, knowing that He is our rock, our refuge, and our Savior. "Have faith in God," Jesus says (Mark 11:22). Let us heed this call, trusting in His love and care. For with faith, we can overcome any obstacle and fulfill our mission to share God's love with the world.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Anthony Huong Le, Pastor
St. Joseph Catholic Church/Mission San José
Diocesan Shrine of St. Joseph

PENITENTIAL RITE - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

Striking your breast: through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away
the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING - Job 38:1, 8-11

The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said: Who shut within doors the sea, when it burst forth from the womb; when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands? When I set limits for it and fastened the bar of its door, and said: Thus far shall you come but no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

RESPONSORIAL PSALM - Psalm 107: Give Thanks to the Lord, His Love Is Everlasting

SECOND READING - 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

Brothers and sisters: The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died. He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer. So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

GOSPEL - Mark 4:35-41

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

Jesus, My Lord, My God, My All

Jesus, my Lord, my God, my All, How can I love thee as I ought?
And how revere this wondrous gift, So far surpassing hope or thought?
Sweet Sacrament, we thee adore; Oh, make us love thee more and more.
Oh, make us love thee more and more.

Had I but Mary's sinless heart To love thee with, my dearest King,
Oh, with what bursts of fervant praise Thy goodness, Jesus, would I sing.
Sweet Sacrament, we thee adore; Oh, make us love thee more and more.
Oh, make us love thee more and more.

I cannot compass all I have, For all thou hast and art are mine.
 Sweet Sacrament, we thee adore; Oh, make us love thee more and more.
 Oh, make us love thee more and more.

Living the Mission with Christ

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROUS SUPPORT OF OUR “LIVING THE MISSION WITH CHRIST” PROGRAM!

Several weeks ago, we began this important parish-wide program and we are starting to see signs that our offertory collections are growing through the generosity of YOU, our faithful parish community. Next week we will be publishing in the bulletin a report with important highlights from our program. Thank you so very much to all who participated. Your generosity shows your willingness as faithful stewards to be a part of the ongoing missions of St. Joseph Catholic Church.

DEAR FRIENDS, VOLUNTEERS, AND COMMUNITY MEMBERS,

As we celebrate the 227th anniversary of Mission San José, Diocesan Shrine of St. Joseph, we want to express our heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you, ministries, organizations, and communities, who have worked tirelessly to preserve and share the rich history, cultural, and spiritual significance of this sacred place.

Your dedication, passion, and hard work have made it possible for us to honor the legacy of the Ohlone people, the missionaries, and the early settlers who shaped the story of California, Diocese of Oakland, and St. Joseph Parish.

From the bottom of our hearts, thank you for your tireless efforts in restoring and maintaining the Mission's buildings and grounds, your generous contributions to support the mission of the Church, your selfless volunteering to share the Mission's history and faith with visitors, pilgrims, and friends from near and far, and your unwavering commitment to preserving the cultural and spiritual heritage of our faith community. Together we continue the mission of the Mission.

Our collective efforts continue to further Mission San José as a beacon of historical significance, cultural pride, and spiritual inspiration for generations to come. May this milestone anniversary be a testament to your dedication and a celebration of our shared inheritance and faith.

Thank you again for your hard work, passion, and love for Mission San José, Diocesan Shrine of St. Joseph!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Anthony Huong Le, Pastor
