In this celestial vision, holy men and women like John Paul II, Junipero Serra, Thérèse of Lisieux, Franciscans, Dominicans, Vietnamese Martyrs, and countless others join the angels of God in a chorus of praise and adoration. In this heavenly gathering, the saints and angels rejoice in the presence of God, their faces radiant with joy and happiness. They celebrate the triumph of love and redemption, won through the sacrifice of Christ on the cross. The Holy Family, consisting of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, shines brightly as the icon of perfect love and unity.

A GLIMPSE OF HIS DREAM

God's dream is not limited to the saints and angels alone. He desires all of humanity to join in this celestial celebration, where every tear is wiped away, and every sorrow is forgotten. He yearns for us to experience the same joy and happiness that fills the hearts of the saints and angels. As we journey through life, God's proximity is always near, guiding and accompanying us. He whispers words of encouragement, comfort, and love, urging us to draw closer to Him.

GOD'S DREAM FOR HUMANITY

As we do so, we will find ourselves drawn into the very life of heaven, where the Holy Family and the saints await us with open arms. There, we will join the chorus of praise and adoration, our hearts filled with joy, happiness, and the presence of God.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Residing in Northeast Pennsylvania, MICHAEL CORSINI, a husband and father of five, dedicates his life as a full-time Catholic painter, illustrator, and musician, with a BFA from Ringling College of Art and Design and an MTS from the John Paul II Institute in Washington, D.C. He fervently believes in the transformative power of sacred art, emphasizing its prophetic and healing qualities in the Church's proclamation of the Gospel. His mantra, "the spiritual healing and renewal needed in our time, begins through an encounter with beauty; the kind of beauty that reveals Christ, and allows for Him to do His Work," encapsulates his mission. Together with his family, they cultivate a small homestead, united in their goal to rejuvenate the Church through the creation of beautiful works of art and music, entrusting their journey to God's providence.
