

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME
July 28, 2024

Please observe reverent silence as we prepare ourselves for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

We are the people of faith, and we believe that the Lord pays close attention to our needs (Psalm 23:1). We need food to sustain our bodies, but we also need truth to sustain our souls (Matthew 4:4). Just as the Lord multiplied the five loaves and two fish to feed the five thousand (John 6:1-14), we can offer our meager resources in faith and generosity, trusting that He will multiply them to feed countless souls.

We are grateful for those who consistently contribute to the collection, enabling the church to continue its vital work (2 Corinthians 9:6-7). However, we are mindful that only a small percentage of our community is actively participating. We encourage everyone to share what they have, just as the little child shared their lunch (John 6:9). The Lord calls on each of us to participate, regardless of our age, history, or education (Galatians 3:28).

By giving and serving, we become part of the great miracle of feeding souls for eternal life (Matthew 25:31-46). We are the people of faith, hope, and love (1 Corinthians 13:13), and generosity of heart and participation in the works of salvation are the hallmarks of our identity. May the Lord grant us the desire to share and participate, that we may experience eternal joy with Him (Psalm 16:11).

Yours in the Lord,

*Fr. Anthony Huong Le, Pastor
St. Joseph Catholic Church/Mission San José
Diocesan Shrine of St. Joseph*

PROCESSION - For the Beauty of the Earth

For the beauty of the earth, For the glory of the skies,
For the love which from our birth Over and around us lies:
Lord of all, to you we raise This our hymn of grateful praise.

For the beauty of each hour Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flow'r, Sun and moon, and stars of light:
Lord of all, to you we raise This our hymn of grateful praise.

For the joy of human love, Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth and friends above; For all gentle thoughts and mild:
Lord of all, to you we raise This our hymn of grateful praise.

Text: 77 77 77; Lyra Eucharistica, 1864; Folliot S. Pierpoint, 1835-1917, alt. Music: Conrad Kocher, 1786-1872; adapt. by William H. Monk, 1823-1899. Tune: DIX 5

PENITENTIAL RITE - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

Striking your breast: through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Kyrie

Priest, deacon, or cantor, then all: Ky - ri - e, e - lé - i - son. Priest, deacon, or cantor, then all: Chri - ste, e - lé - i - son.

Priest, deacon, or cantor; all repeat or sing longer conclusion: Ky - ri - e, e - lé - i - son. Ky - ri - e, e - lé - i - son.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING - 2 Kings 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the firstfruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat." But his servant objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat." "For thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.'" And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

SECOND READING - Ephesians 4:1-6

Brothers and sisters: I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Mode VI. Accompaniment and verse tone © 2020, Michael Dominic O'Connor, O.P. §

GOSPEL - John 6:1-15

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

Let All Things Now Living

Let all things now living A song of thanksgiving
 To God our Creator triumphantly raise; Who fashioned and made us,
 Protected and stayed us, By guiding us onto the end of our days,
 His banners are o'er us, His light goes before us,
 A pillar of fire shining forth in the night; Till shadows have vanished
 And darkness is banished, As forward we travel from light into light.

His law he enforces, The stars in their courses,
 The sun in its orbit obediently shine, The hills and the mountains,
 The rivers and fountains, The depths of the ocean proclaim him divine.
 We, too, should be voicing Our love and rejoicing
 With glad adoration, a song let us raise, Till all things now living
 Unite in thanksgiving To God in the highest, hosanna and praise.

COMMUNION

When We Gather In This Place

This is the bread of life. This is the cup of joy.
This is the table of abundant grace. Receive the gift of life.
Receive the gift of joy, for Christ is with us

Let Us Be Bread

Let us be bread, blessed by the Lord, broken and shared, life for the world.
Let us be wine, love freely poured. Let us be one in the Lord.

I am the bread of life, broken for all. Eat now and hunger no more.

You are my friends if you keep my commands, no longer servants but friends.

See how my people have nothing to eat. Give them the bread that is you.

As God has loved me so I have loved you. Go and live on in my love.

Where Charity and Love Prevail

Where charity and love prevail, There God is ever found;
Brought here together by Christ's love, By love are we thus bound.

With grateful joy and holy fear His charity we learn;
Let us with heart and mind and soul Now love him in return.

Forgive we now each other's faults As we our faults confess;
And let us love each other well In Christian holiness.

Let strife among us be unknown, Let all contention cease;
Be his the glory that we seek, Be ours his holy peace.

Carriage House exterior repairs began on July 17 with termite tenting/fumigation. The Carriage House has not been repainted or reroofed for over 30 years. There are areas of exterior dry rot and fungus damage, and the windows and doors are in bad shape. Some of the roof shingles peeled away last winter from wind and the exterior staircase is falling apart. This necessary maintenance will make the building watertight and prevent water damage to the building's interior. Repairs will take about three months to complete. Please observe the contractor's safety fencing and signage and avoid parking next to the Carriage House.

The estimated cost of the Carriage House's exterior repair is $400,000. As reported at the June 22, 2024 State of the Parish meeting, projects that are part of the 2022 Parish Master Plan are funded using repurposed donations from the former capital campaigns as they become available. Four Master Plan projects are complete or nearing completion. Repairing the exterior of the Carriage House marks the beginning of the fifth project in our Parish Master Plan:

1. Remodel Saint Joseph church, adding air conditioning, new restrooms, and updated interiors (completed except for air conditioning which will be finished later this year)
2. Repair the museum's damaged building foundation (completed)

3. Renovate Ministry House 1 and Ministry House 2 (completed)
4. Build a paved gathering area across St. Joseph Terrace from the church to provide space for outdoor events and additional parking (completed)
5. Renovate the Carriage House to provide more ministry and meeting space, turning this deteriorated building into a valuable parish asset
6. Build a sports field on the vacant land we own behind the school
7. Construct a new building connecting the Mission church and the Museum to provide restrooms and enclosed gathering space for the Mission and Museum.

The Mission Museum Renewal Project is being separately funded from new donations, including purchases of prints of the "Wedding Feast of the Lamb" painting and the other giving opportunities identified in the bulletin and on the parish website. All donations to the Museum Renewal project will be recognized on the parish's gratitude wall under the Wedding Feast of the Lamb painting in the church.

For more information about the Carriage House repairs, Parish Master Plan, and Mission Museum Renewal Project, please visit the Facilities pages on the parish website.
