FAITH IN THE HOLY EUCHARIST: OVERCOMING DOUBTS AND EMBRACING THE MYSTERY

DEAR ALL IN CHRIST,

The Holy Eucharist, a central sacrament in Christianity, has long been a source of fascination and controversy. For many, particularly those of Jewish descent, the concept of consuming the body and blood of Christ is difficult to accept. Traditional reasons for this skepticism include the prohibition on eating human flesh and drinking blood, which would render one ritually unclean for worship (Leviticus 7:26). Additionally, the claim that Jesus is the son of God and the true bread from heaven can be challenging to grasp (John 6:32-33).

In fact, Jesus' own disciples struggled with this teaching, leading many to abandon their fellowship (John 6:60-66). Today, a staggering 70% of Catholics in the USA do not believe that the Holy Eucharist is truly the body and blood of Christ. So, how can we understand and embrace this sacred mystery?

Believing in Jesus as God. The foundation of faith in the Holy Eucharist lies in our belief in Jesus as God incarnate. As Jesus Himself said, "I am the bread of life; he who comes to Me shall not hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst" (John 6:35). If we acknowledge Jesus as the divine Son of God, we must recognize that He cannot deceive us. God is truth itself. There is no falsehood in him. His power to transform bread and wine into His body and blood is within His capabilities, having already demonstrated His divinity through miracles such as turning water into wine (John 2:1-11) and raising the dead (John 11:1-44).

The Testimony of the Early Church. The early Christian community took Jesus' words about the Eucharist with utmost seriousness, willing to sacrifice their lives for this belief. As St. Paul wrote, "For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which He was betrayed took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it, and said, "This is My body which is for you; do this in remembrance of Me"

(1 Corinthians 11:23-24). Their conviction serves as a testament to the truth of the Holy Eucharist. As we approach the sacrament, we must acknowledge the depth of God's love, which makes Himself accessible to us in a sacramental way, under the signs of bread and wine (Matthew 26:26-30).

A New Way of Approaching the Lord. Belief in the Holy Eucharist demands a transformation in our attitude and behavior. As we attend Mass, we must recognize that we are encountering the living Lord in flesh and blood. Our attire, conduct and spiritual state should reflect reverence and respect for this sacred encounter. We do that in all the formal settings, so why not for God?

As St. Paul reminds us, "Let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup" (1 Corinthians 11:28). By freeing our souls from moral sins, we can fully receive the promise of this heavenly food and deepen our relationship with God (1 Corinthians 11:27-32).

As we continue on the journey of spiritual growth, may we cultivate a profound understanding and appreciation for the Holy Eucharist. May our faith in this sacred mystery guide us toward a more intimate connection with Christ, the source of eternal life (John 6:53-58).

Beginning in September, once a month we will have 24-hour adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from the first Friday morning to Saturday morning. Please sign up and spend an hour with God praying for your needs, our community, and our country.

Welcome back students, parents, and all!

Sincerely Yours,

Fr. Anthony Huong Le, Pastor
St. Joseph Catholic Church/Mission San José
Diocesan Shrine of St. Joseph

PROCESSION - Make Us True Servants

Make us true servants to all those in need. Filled with compassion in thought, word and deed;
Loving our neighbor, whatever the cost, Feeding the hungry and finding the lost.

Lord, make us prophets to cry out the way, Telling the nations of mercy's new day.
Let us break barriers of hatred and scorn, Speaking of hope to all people forlorn.

Lord, make us healers of body and mind; Give us your pow'r to bring sight to the blind;
Love to the loveless and gladness for pain, Filling all hearts with the joy of your name.

Words by Susan G. Wentz; Music: Irish Folk Melody §

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Inclína, Dómine, aurem tuam ad me, et exáudi me: salvum fac servum tuum, Deus
meus, sperántem in te: miserére mihi,
Dómine, quóniam ad te clamávi tota die.

Turn your ear, O Lord, and answer me; save the servant who trusts in you, my God. Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.

PENITENTIAL RITE - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

Striking your breast: through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Kyrie

Priest, deacon, or cantor, then all:

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly
King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING - Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b

Joshua gathered together all the tribes of Israel at Shechem, summoning their elders, their leaders, their judges, and their officers. When they stood in ranks before God, Joshua addressed all the people: "If it does not please you to serve the LORD, decide today whom you will serve, the gods your fathers served beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose country you are now dwelling. As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."

But the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake the LORD for the service of other gods. For it was the LORD, our God, who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, out of a state of slavery. He performed those great miracles before our very eyes and protected us along our entire journey and among the peoples through whom we passed. Therefore we also will serve the LORD, for he is our God."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM - Psalm 34: Taste and See the Goodness of the Lord

Taste and see the good-ness of the Lord, the good - ness of the Lord.

Text: Psalm 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7; Martyr Haugen, © 1980, GIA Publications, Inc.; refrain trans. © 1969, ICEL. Music: Martyr Haugen, © 1980, GIA Publications, Inc. §

SECOND READING - Ephesians 5:21-32

Brothers and sisters: Be subordinate to one another out of reverence for Christ. Wives should be subordinate to their husbands as to the Lord. For the husband is head of his wife just as Christ is head of the church, he himself the savior of the body. As the church is subordinate to Christ, so wives should be subordinate to their husbands in everything. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her, cleansing her by the bath of water with the word, that he might present to himself the church in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. So also husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. For no one hates his own flesh but rather nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ does the church, because we are members of his body. For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the church.

GOSPEL - John 6:60-69

Many of Jesus' disciples who were listening said, "This saying is hard; who can accept it?" Since Jesus knew that his disciples were murmuring about this, he said to them, "Does this shock you? What if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life, while the flesh is of no avail. The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe." Jesus knew from the beginning the ones who would not believe and the one who would betray him. And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father." As a result of this, many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him. Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?" Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God.

OFFERTORY - O Word of God Incarnate

O Word of God incarnate, O Wisdom from on high,
O Truth, unchanged, unchanging, O Light of our dark sky:
We praise Thee for the radiance That from the scripture's page,
A lantern to our footsteps, Shines on from age to age.

The church from thee, dear Master, Received the word divine;
And still that light is lifted O'er all the earth to shine.
It is the chart and compass That o'er life's troubled sea,
'Mid mists and rocks and quick-sands Still guides, O Christ to thee.

O make Thy Church, dear Savior, A lamp of purest gold,
To bear before the nations Thy true light, as of old.
O teach thy wand'ring pilgrims By this their path to trace,
Till, clouds and darkness ended, They see thee face to face.

Tune: MUNICH 76 76 D. William W. How, 1823–1897, alt. Neuvermehrtes Meiningsches Gesangbuch, Meiningen, 1693. Adapt. by Felix Mendelssohn, 1809-1847. §

Wherever You May Go

Wherever you may go, I will follow, And your people shall be my people too,
Wherever you may go, I will follow, For I would be faithful, loyal and true
Say the word and I will stay, I will never go away,
We will travel side by side, And God's love will be our guide.

Wherever you may go, I will follow, And your people shall be my people too,
Wherever you may go, I will follow, For I would be faithful, loyal and true
From beginning to the end, I will always be your friend,
When you need me I'll be there, You can trust my faithful care.

Wherever you may go, I will follow, And your people shall be my people too,
Wherever you may go, I will follow, For I would be faithful, loyal and true.

Tune: RENAUD Irregular. This song was written to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Renauds, a military family who moved often and had the passage from Ruth read at their wedding.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

De fructu óperum tuórum, Dómine, satiábitur terra: ut edúcas panem de terra, et vinum lætíficet cor hóminis: ut exhílalet fáciem in óleo, et panis cor hóminis confirmet.

Ant. Text: Public Domain. Ant. Melody: Anon.; Public Domain. §

The earth is replete with the fruits of your work, O Lord; you bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer the heart. Oil, to make his face shine, and bread to strengthen the heart of man.

COMMUNION

As Grains of Wheat

As grains of wheat are gathered in we've come together;
from lives apart we bring our hearts to make one whole.

For many are we, and broken we've come, but we shall become one.

Each grain must fall and give itself: it first is broken;
then, joined with others, makes one body and one bread.

From many fields the harvest comes to feed the hungry;
the world cries out to taste the goodness of the Lord.

Your harvest, Lord, is gathered in; We stand before you to be your bread, to be your body in the world.

The Supper of the Lord

Precious body, precious blood, seen in bread and wine;
here the Lord prepares the feast divine. Bread of love is broken now, cup of life is poured: come, share the supper of the Lord.

This is the bread of God coming down from heav'n, giving life to us, to all the world.

"I am the living spring of eternal life; you that drink from me shall not thirst again."

"I am the bread of heav'n giving life to you; you that eat this bread shall never die."

"All those who feed on me have their life in me, as I have my life in the living God."

All praise to you, O Christ, present in this feast, in this bread we share in one life, one Lord.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL - All

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou,

O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of Souls. Amen. §

RECESSIONAL - The Church's One Foundation

The Church's one foundation Is Jesus Christ, her Lord;
She is His new creation By water and the Word.
From heav'n he came and sought her To be his holy bride;
with His own blood he bought her, and for her life he died.

Elect from ev'ry nation, Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation, One Lord, one faith, one birth;
One holy name she blesses, Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses, With ev'ry grace endued.

'Mid toil and tribulation, And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation Of peace forevermore;
Till with the vision glorious Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious Shall be the Church at rest.

Tune: AURELIA 76 76 D. Samuel J. Stone, 1839-1900 Samuel S. Wesley, 1810-1876. §
