

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME September 22, 2024

Mission Statement: Our St. Joseph family is living the mission with Christ through the works of faith, charity and mercy.

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS

Rejoice! The Lord Jesus prays for us, and in his prayer, we discover wonderful truths. As Jesus said, “They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world” (John 17:14-16).

First, we are loved beyond measure! The Lord remembers us, calling us “gifts” from the Father (John 17:6-9). He prays for our protection from the Evil One, demonstrating his selfless love for us.

Second, we have a dual citizenship: earthly and heavenly! As St. Paul wrote, “Our citizenship is in heaven” (Philippians 3:20). We belong to God’s beautiful creation, but not to the sinful world. Our earthly citizenship is limited, but our heavenly citizenship is forever!

Third, we are consecrated in the truth! Jesus says, “I am the way, the truth, and the life” (John 14:6). Our heavenly passport is stamped with the truth of God’s word. As we mark ourselves with the sign of the cross, we’re sealed with the truth of faith.

Fourth, we have to vote with our faith, shaping the world with God’s love! As citizens of this world, we exercise our responsibilities, voting with a well-formed conscience, inspired by Catholic faith and principles. We vote for God, life, love, family, and freedom to worship God.

While our earthly citizenship is limited and short, we anticipate our heavenly one to be wonderful and lasting.

May the Lord’s joy and peace fill your hearts!

Thank you for supporting our brothers and sisters affected by Typhoon Yagi in Vietnam.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

*Fr. Anthony Huong Le, Pastor
St. Joseph Catholic Church/Mission San José
Diocesan Shrine of St. Joseph*

Vietnam Typhoon Diocesan Relief Effort

My hometown and family were hit hard by a typhoon and left to deal with tremendous loss. Typhoon Yagi brought devastating damage to North Vietnam leaving thousands of families without shelter, crops destroyed, and the death toll still rising. To read more and support <https://www.saintjosephmsj.org/typhoon-relief/>. Thank you for your prayers and overwhelming generosity.

Catholic Voting Guidelines

As Catholics, we integrate our faith as the moral framework in exercising our rights to vote for and support political leaders on significant issues affecting local, state, and federal. Passed on by the bishops of California, please read the guidelines to follow at <https://www.saintjosephmsj.org/parish-election-guidelines/> during the election season.

Please observe reverent silence as we prepare ourselves for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

PENITENTIAL RITE - Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

Striking your breast: through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heav'nly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING - Wisdom 2:12, 17-20

The wicked say: Let us beset the just one, because he is obnoxious to us; he sets himself against our doings, reproaches us for transgressions of the law and charges us with violations of our training. Let us see whether his words be true; let us find out what will happen to him. For if the just one be the son of God, God will defend him and deliver him from the hand of his foes. With revilement and torture let us put the just one to the test that we may have proof of his gentleness and try his patience. Let us condemn him to a shameful death; for according to his own words, God will take care of him.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM - Psalm 54: The Lord Upholds My Life

R. The Lord up - holds my life.

SECOND READING - James 3:16-4:3

Beloved: Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every foul practice. But the wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate peace. Where do the wars and where do the conflicts among you come from? Is it not from your passions that make war within your members? You covet but do not possess. You kill and envy but you cannot obtain; you fight and wage war. You do not possess because you do not ask. You ask but do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Chant, Mode VII. Accompaniment and verse tone © 2020, Michael Dominic O'Connor, O.P. §

GOSPEL - Mark 9:30-37

Jesus and his disciples left from there and began a journey through Galilee, but he did not wish anyone to know about it. He was teaching his disciples and telling them, "The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise." But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to question him. They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, he began to ask them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they remained silent. They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me."

DISMISSAL

OFFERTORY - Come, Risen Lord and Deign to Be Our Guest

Come, risen Lord, and deign to be our guest; nay, let us be thy guests; the feast is thine; thyself at thine own table manifest in thine own Sacrament of Bread and Wine.

We meet, as in that upper room they met; thou at the table, blessing, yet dost stand: "This is my Body"; so thou givest yet: faith still receives the cup as from thy hand.

One body we, one body who partake, one Church united in communion blest; one Name we bear, one Bread of life we break, with all thy saints on earth and saints at rest.

One with each other, Lord, for one in thee, who art one Savior and one living Head; then open thou our eyes, that we may see; be known to us in breaking of the Bread.

Tune: ELLERS 10 10 10 10. Edward John Hopkins, 1818-1901 Text: George Wallace Briggs, 1875-1959, alt. §

THE PILGRIM CHURCH:

The Franciscan Journey

The Franciscan Journey

DEAR FRIENDS,

In our last article, we presented the first room of the newly envisioned museum, Divine Pilgrimage: The Holy Family. You were invited to journey with the Holy Family on a sacred pilgrimage, beginning with God and fulfilled by Mary, Joseph, and Jesus. Today, our pilgrimage continues with the Franciscans.

Saint Francis of Assisi (1181-1226) was a shining example of devotion to God, compassion for souls, and commitment to poverty. His love for God was unwavering, and he sought to emulate Christ in every aspect of his life. With a heart full of charity, Francis ministered to the poor, the sick, and the marginalized, recognizing the inherent dignity of every human being.

The Franciscans, inspired by St. Francis' example, dedicated themselves to evangelizing the indigenous peoples of the Americas. St. Junipero Serra (1713-1784), a Franciscan friar, was a prominent figure in this mission. Following in St. Francis' footsteps, Serra traveled to California in 1769 and established nine missions between 1769 and 1784. He shared the Gospel with Native American populations, learning their languages and customs, and adapting his message to their unique needs.

On June 11, 1797, Father Fermín Francisco de Lasuén (1736-1803), successor to Junípero Serra, founded Mission San José, the fourteenth mission in the chain of twenty-one California missions. Established in the Ohlone territory, near present-day Fremont, California, the mission aimed to convert the local population to Christianity. Father Narciso Durán (1776-1846) was appointed as Minister and Superior, building its structures and developing its agricultural facilities.

By 1828, Mission San José had grown to over 1,800 people, becoming a thriving agricultural center producing wheat, corn, and other crops. Its strategic location made it a crucial stopover between Mission San Francisco and Mission Santa Clara. Father James Dumiel was appointed as Pastor in 1853 when the San Francisco Archdiocese and St. Joseph Parish were established.

Today, Mission San José stands not only as an important historical landmark and testament to California's complex indigenous and Spanish history, but also as a sacred shrine honoring Saint Joseph, protector of the universal church. It serves as a living church where people encounter the living God, people of faith, and the history of the land and its people.

In conclusion, the legacy of St. Francis, St. Junipero Serra, and Father Fermín Francisco de Lasuén has profoundly impacted California's history and indigenous populations. Through their tireless efforts to evangelize and establish missions, they brought Christianity to the region, leaving a multifaceted legacy that continues to shape our world. As we journey through the history of Mission San José's establishment in 1797, we recognize the importance of understanding and respecting diverse cultures, histories, and beliefs.
