CATCHING MEN: A LESSON IN OBEDIENCE

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

In the Gospel of Luke, we read the story of Peter's miraculous catch of fish (Luke 5:1-11). Peter, an experienced fisherman, had worked all night but caught nothing. It was only when Jesus instructed him to cast his nets in a specific area that Peter experienced an abundance of fish.

This story teaches us a valuable lesson about obedience. Despite his initial doubts, Peter chose to obey Jesus' instructions, and the results were amazing. This lesson is just as relevant for us today. In our lives, we are constantly bombarded with voices competing for our attention.

Social media, politicians, and cultural influencers all want us to believe in their promises and ideologies. While some of these voices may be well-meaning, it is essential to cross-check their messages with the teachings of Christ. Remaining faithful to Jesus can be challenging, especially when cultural forces are strong, and our understanding is limited.

The Lord asks us to celebrate life from conception to natural death, but the world promotes a different view. The Lord created us as male and female, but the culture tries to convince us otherwise. In the face of these challenges, we must remember Peter's lesson in obedience. We must trust in the Lord and follow His instructions, even when they seem counterintuitive or difficult. There will be times when our efforts seem to yield no value, but we must persevere, trusting that the seeds of faith we plant will eventually grow and bear fruit.

As we journey through life, let us remember to always remain obedient to Christ. Let us trust in His teachings and instructions, even when the world around us seems to be pulling us in a different direction.

Sincerely,

Fr. Anthony Huong Le, Pastor

Family of Faith – First Reconciliation

We joyfully congratulate our children who received the Sacrament of First Reconciliation on February 4! This beautiful milestone was made possible through the love, guidance, and dedication of our catechists and parents. Catechists, thank you for your faithful service, sharing the teachings of Christ with our children and preparing their hearts to receive God's boundless mercy. Parents, thank you for living the Catholic way of life and providing a strong foundation of faith and love. Together, you have guided these young souls to understand and experience the healing grace of reconciliation—a gift they will carry with them throughout their lives. May God bless our families as they continue to walk in faith and joy, preparing to receive Jesus in the Sacrament of First Holy Communion.
