EMBRACING THE REALITY OF DEATH:
FINDING HOPE IN THE RESURRECTION

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

Death is an inevitable part of life, yet it remains a difficult and depressing reality for many of us to face. As a priest, I have had the privilege of visiting with parishioners who are struggling with illness and the prospect of death. Recently, the passing of a close friend hit me hard, and I was reminded of the pain and sadness that accompanies loss.

However, as Christians, we have a unique perspective on death. We believe in the resurrection of the body, and the hope of eternal life with God. This hope makes the reality of death bearable, and even transforms it into a moment of triumph and victory. As St. Paul reminds us in 1 Corinthians 15:17, “If Christ has not been raised, our faith is in vain, and we are the most pitiful people in the world.” But our Lord has shown us that it is possible to overcome death, and that our bodies will be raised again. This is a matter of faith, and it gives us the courage to face death with hope and confidence.

So, the question is no longer what happens after death, but rather how should we live our lives now, knowing that they will come to an end. This is a profound and exciting reality, and it is entirely within our power to choose how we want to live. We can choose to live a meaningless and miserable existence, or we can embark on an adventure with God, believing that life will continue on with Him and does not end in death. As St. Paul says, “For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain” (Philippians 1:21). Our Lord has shown us the way to heaven, and it is through the practice of the Beatitudes. These virtues - poverty of spirit, mourning, meekness, hunger and thirst for righteousness, mercy, purity of heart, and peacemaking - are the roadmap to heaven, and they guarantee life beyond death.

Practicing these virtues is a lifelong discipline and training plan. It requires patience, perseverance, and dedication, but the reward is well worth it. As Jesus says, “Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted” (Matthew 5:4). In conclusion, death is a reality that we must all face, but it is not the end. Through our faith in the resurrection of the body, we have hope and confidence that life will continue on with God. Let us choose to live our lives in a way that reflects this hope, and let us embark on the adventure of practicing the Beatitudes, that we may guarantee life beyond death.

Yours,

Fr. Anthony Huong Le, Pastor

FAITH FORMATION, SJS & CYO NEWS

Family of Faith – First Reconciliation—Thank You!

We joyfully congratulate our children who received the Sacrament of First Reconciliation on February 4! This beautiful milestone was made possible through the love, guidance, and dedication of our catechists and parents. Catechists, thank you for your faithful service, sharing the teachings of Christ with our children and preparing their hearts to receive God's boundless mercy. Parents, thank you for living the Catholic way of life and providing a strong foundation of faith and love. Together, you have guided these young souls to understand and experience the healing grace of reconciliation—a gift they will carry with them throughout their lives. May God bless our families as they continue to walk in faith and joy, preparing to receive Jesus in the Sacrament of First Holy Communion.

The Rescue Project

Have you ever asked yourself these questions?
Why is there something rather than nothing?
Why is everything so messed up?

What, if anything, has God done about it?
What is my role in this?

We invite you to join us for The Rescue Project. Together we can discover The Story.

SPOTLIGHT MINISTRY ~ MISSION SAN JOSÉ

The Mission Museum Ambassadors and Gift Shop Associates

The Mission Church and museum have been welcoming visitors again for two months following their reopening in December 2024 after significant renovations. We celebrated a grand reopening on the weekend of December 14 and 15, 2024.

We estimate that more than 500 people explored the entire museum during the reopening weekend. The gift shop was bustling with customers seeking meaningful souvenirs. A photographer from the Tri-City Voice (TCV) newspaper attended the event and interviewed Father Anthony and Andy Galvan.

The St. Joseph Chapel of Healing was prominently featured on the front page of the following issue of TCV. You can read the article here: <https://tricityvoice.com/st-joseph-chapel-reopens-at-mission/>. True to its reporting, the grounds of the St. Joseph Catholic Church/Mission San José, Diocesan Shrine of St. Joseph, are now positioned as “beacons to draw and welcome those on pilgrimage to engage in prayer and celebrate Mass.”

This successful reopening would not have been possible without the dedicated efforts of our Mission Museum Ambassadors (MMAs) and Gift Shop Associates.

Who Are the Mission Museum Ambassadors and Gift Shop Associates?

The MMAs are parishioner volunteers who generously share their God-given gifts and talents to assist on the museum grounds. The Gift Shop Associates, employed by our parish, expertly manage the Gift Shop Center. Together, these groups play a vital role in creating a warm, welcoming environment for all visitors.

They enthusiastically welcome museum guests, lead informative tours, assist visitors at the new Pilgrim and Gift Shop Centers, maintain the beauty of the Mission Museum grounds, and support various events and workshops. Their passionate and joyful service aims to offer all visitors a transformative encounter with God.

Thanks to their dedication, the Mission experience now extends beyond a historical exploration of one of California’s 21 missions. This expansion aligns with the goals of the Mission Renewal Project launched in 2024.

Join the Mission Museum Ambassadors

We invite anyone who feels called to join the Mission Museum Ambassadors. This year, we envision St. Joseph Parish becoming a destination of hope for pilgrims from near and far. If you feel a stirring in your heart after reading this, it may be God calling you to serve.

Don’t worry if you feel unprepared or think you lack the necessary skills. Remember: God does not call the qualified - He qualifies and equips those whom He calls. As St. Paul wrote in Ephesians 2:10, “For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live in them.”

We will provide training! Please contact us at pilgrimage@saintjosephmsj.org or 510-657-1797 to learn more. ~ Donna Yap, Mission Coordinator
